

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS (SAP) APPEAL FORM 2006-2007 Academic Year

NOTE: SUBMISSION OF THIS FORM DOES NOT GUARANTEE REINSTATEMENT OF AID ELIGIBILITY

ALL students must earn their degree within the 150 % margin of the required credits to complete the program. Once that margin is reached, students are INELIGIBLE to appeal for Maximum Time-Frame Limitation of the Quantitative Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy.

Any incomplete appeals lacking supporting documentation will not be considered for review.

Section 1: Required Documentation

The SAP Appeal reviews the academic records of students who are no longer eligible to receive both Federal and State Student Aid. In order to appeal your Financial Aid suspension, complete all information and return this form with supporting documentation. As established by the U.S. Department of Education, your appeal must address one of the following issues:

- Pre-requisites and deficiencies at the point of admission.
- Personal illness or injury (must provide a written statement from your physician)
- The death of an immediate family member (please provide copy of the death certificate)
- Extenuating circumstances that were clearly beyond your control.

Considering the above criteria, explain clearly in a signed letter and in full detail what caused you to not meet the minimum Satisfactory Academic Progress Standards.
